

The book cover features a vibrant orange background with a collage of images. At the top left, a woman with dark curly hair looks upwards. In the center, a man in a dark suit is shown in a black and white photograph, gesturing with his hand. To the right, there's a close-up of a yellow and pink flower. A large white number '3' is prominently displayed in the center, with the word 'die' above it. At the bottom left, a man's face is partially visible next to a red circular graphic. The authors' names are listed at the bottom right.
